SECTION - VI

Government and the Commission

A. NON ACCEPTANCE OF COMMISSION'S ADVICE:

During the year under report, the Government have deviated from the Commission's advice in four cases. The details are as follows:

CASE - I

(G.O(3D) No.29,Animal Husbandry, Dairying and Fisheries (F.S.III) Department, dated 22.9.06)

During November 1998, the Government forwarded the records relating to the disciplinary action initiated against Thiru.J.Janardhanan, Selection Grade Inspector of Fisheries, and sought the views of the Commission under Regulation 18 (1) (b) of Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission Regulations, 1954, as to the orders to be passed on the case. The commission, after careful examination, advised the Government to remove the delinquent officer from service vide its letter dated 22.10.1999.

Again, during December 2000, the Government sought the revised views of the Commission, under Regulation 18 (1) (b) (iii) of Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission Regulations, 1954, stating that they have proposed to impose a punishment other than removal from service, by relaxing the provision under Fundamental Rules 18 (3) in favour of the delinquent officer, as a special case, considering the fact, that the delinquent officer was mentally not sound, that his wife and children were wholly dependent on him and that if a capital punishment was ordered, it would certainly land him in the streets and his family thrown into hardship and poverty and that accordingly, orders were obtained upto Her Excellency the Governor of Tamil Nadu to relax Fundamental Rules 18 (3) in favour of the delinquent officer and to seek the views of the Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission under regulation 18 (1) (b) (iii) only, but the Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission was addressed for its views under Regulation 18 (1) (b).

The Commission., during January 2001, called for the connected records to offer its views on the case. The Government, till August 2006, had not sent the required records.

Later, in view of the unsound mental condition of the delinquent officer, the Government decided to treat the period of suspension of Thiru.J.Janardhanan, Selection Grade Inspector of Fisheries, from 26.10.99 to 31.10.99, as substantive punishment and to deem that he was retired from service attaining the age of superannuation, on 31.10.1999 A.N. so as to enable him to get usual retirement benefits and issued orders accordingly in G.O. (3D) No.29, Animal Husbandry, Dairying and Fisheries (FS.III) department, dated 22.9.2006 deviating from the views of the Commission.

Considering the nature and circumstances of the case, the Commission advised the Government to remove the delinquent officer from service. But the Government issued orders deviating from Commission's advice.

CASE-II

[G.O.(3D)NO. 9, Animal Husbandry, Dairy Development and Fisheries (AH.1) Department, dated 7.3.2006]

Disciplinary action was initiated against Thiru. P.Paulraj (Review petitioner), formerly Veterinary Assistant Surgeon, Veterinary Dispensary, Parakkai by framing charges under Rule 17 (b) of the Tamil Nadu Civil Services (Discipline & Appeal) Rules and his explanation was obtained. The Government holding certain charges as proved, came to a provisional conclusion for awarding punishment for the proved charges and sought the Commission's views. The Commission examined the case in detail and advised the Government to award the punishment of removal from service to the Review Petitioner for the charges held proved against him. The Government accepted the above views of the Commission and issued orders imposing the punishment of "Removal from service" on the Review Petitioner.

Aggrieved by the above punishment, the Review Petitioner preferred a Review Petition to the Government. The Government forwarded the above Review Petition with the connected records and sought the views of the Commission on the Review Petition. The Commission, after examining the case, found that no fresh and acceptable points had been put forth in the Review Petition and that the Inquiry Officer had held the charges as proved with clear evidence. Therefore the Commission advised the Government to reject the Review Petition, which had no substance and acceptable explanations.

However, the Government have issued orders deviating from the above views of the Commission and modified the punishment of "Removal from service" already imposed on the Review Petitioner into one of 'stoppage of increment for four years with cumulative effect'. Considering the gravity of the delinquencies committed by the Review Petitioner, the Commission advised the Government to reject his Review Petition. But the Government have issued orders deviating from the Commission's advice.

CASE-IIIG.O.(D) No.1206,Home (Prison 2) Dept. dated 18.12.2006.

Disciplinary action was taken against Thiru.K.Salamon, formerly Constable, Grade – II, Central Prison, Trichy, under rule 17(b) of Tamil Nadu civil Services (Discipline and Appeal) Rules for his certain immoral activities while he was sent for Training from Trichy Central Prison to Vellore Police Training School. As the immoral activities of the Petitioner was considered that it would encourage other trainees also, the punishment of dismissal from service was imposed on him by the Superintendent, Central Prison. The appeal against the punishment to the DIG of Prison, Chennai Region and Petition to the Additional DGP of Prisons, were rejected.

Thiru.K.Salamon, has submitted a petition to the Government against the punishment imposed. The Government sought the views of the Commission in January 2006 as to the orders to be passed on the petition.

The Commission, in its views, stated that the punishment of dismissal from service imposed on the petitioner was proportionate to the gravity of charges and advised the Government to reject the petition as devoid of merits.

But, the Government issued orders in G.O.(D)No.1206, Home (Prison2) Dept. dated 18.12.2006., deviating from the views of the Commission stating that the punishment of dismissal from service imposed on the petitioner was very severe one and that they decided to allow the petitioner to rejoin in government service by canceling the punishment order already issued and then to impose the punishment of stoppage of increment for five years with cumulative effect on the Petitioner, affecting his pension. (inclusive of leave, if any, (excluding C.L.) spent by the Review Petitioner, before the punishment is completed.)

The Commission advised the Government to reject the petition whereas the Government issued orders deviating from its advice.

CASE-IVG.O.(D) No.640, Rural development and Panchyat Raj (E2) Dept. dated 01.11.2006.

In the case relating to the disciplinary action against Thiru.S.B.Kamalakannan (Retd) formerly extension Officer (Panchayat), Hosur Panchayat Union, Krishnagiri district, on charges of certain irregularities in the purchase of pipes and specials etc., for the maintenance of power pumps of water supply Schemes in Hosur Panchayat Union, the government arrived at a provisional conclusion to impose a punishment of cut in pension of Rs. 50/- per month for a period of 6 months and sought the views of the Commission in September 2005.

The Commission sent its views to the effect that " since disciplinary proceedings on the co-delinquent Thiru.M.Nanjundan for the same delinquency were dropped by Government on the direction of Tamil Nadu Administrative Tribunal, the Commission feels that the Delinquent Officer also may be treated in the same way and advises the Government to drop the proceedings against Thiru.S.B.Kamalakannan".

But, the Government issued orders in G.O.(D) No.640, Rural development and Panchyat Raj (E2) Dept, dated 01.11.2006, deviating from the Commission's views and imposed the punishment of cut in pension of Rs. 50/- per month for a period of six months on the Delinquent Officer for the proven charges.

The Commission advised the Government to drop the disciplinary proceedings against Thiru.S.B.Kamalakannan. But the Government issued orders deviating from the Commission's advice.

B. Non-consultation with the Commission : Nil

C. The Government have violated their own instructions and the Commission trust that this will not recur in future. Details of the number of cases in which Government have not accepted the Commission's advice and the number of cases in which Government have not consulted the Commission are given for the last five years in Annexure – XII.
