(5 × 20 = 100)

1. Hindi Day :

Hindi day is celebrated every year on 14 September in all Hindi speaking states. This is mainly celebrated to encourage and promote the Hindi language.

Hindi is spoken among 500 million people as their national language and it is considered as the second most used language in the world. Hindi day is celebrated separately because on September 14 1949, the Indian constitution members adopted Hindi language as its official language in the 'Devanagari' script.

2. Nature :

Nature is filled with uncountable colors. It has given its lap and place for both living and non-living. There is a change in the climate along with time by nature. For our health, nature is very important. We should protect it but in this modern world, we humans become very selfish. We misuse the nature and cause imbalance due to which we will not be able to tolerate its wrath. We have to take care of our environment so that our future generation can enjoy it.

3. Junk Food :

The use of junk food is increasing day by day in the entire world. Chips, chocolates, pizza, burger, etc. fried foods are considered as junk foods. The impact of junk food on people is increasing but the consumption of these causes only harm.

The effects of junk food are faster in kids. Obesity is its biggest symptom. This not only causes harm to physical health but also causes huge loss of mental health

4. Rising Terrorism :

Today, the entire world is lurking in the shadow of terrorism. No one knows when, where and who would be killed. The problem of terrorism has been created by humans. A question arises about why terrorism is growing; there are many reasons for it. Unemployment, corruption, poverty, hunger, casteism, religious intolerance and many other reasons. Terrorism destroys the entire society.

Today, the roots of terrorism are wide and deep. Terrorism is making our lives insecure and unsure. Terrorism is a black mark on the whole of humanity.

5. Importance of Time :

Human life is short yet the work is unlimited. The importance of time is equal for everyone irrespective of their age or category. The secret of success in anybody's lives lies in the proper usage of time. If we want success in our life, then we have to definitely do our work on time. An intelligent person does not even waste a second of his time.

The time cannot be stopped. Therefore, if we want the upliftment of ourselves and our nation, then we have to learn to use time effectively in order to meet progress.
