Read:

- 1) G.O.MS.No.128, Environment and Forests Department, dated 26.3.92.
- 2) From the Secretary, Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission, Lr.No.4069/RND-A2/98, dt. 17.6.98.
- 3) From the Secretary, Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission, Lr.No.2438/RND-B3/2000, dt. 22.1.2003.
- 4) From the Principal Chief Conservator of Forests Lr.No.AA1/48328/98, dt. 29.9.2004.

ORDER:

In the G.O. first read above, orders were issued inter alia, prescribing 'Wildlife Management' and 'Wildlife Ecology' as additional optional subjects in the scheme of examination for direct recruitment to the post of Assistant Conservator of Forests in Group I A Services

2. The Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission in the reference second and third read above has stated that "Degree/Courses in Wildlife Management and Wildlife Ecology are not offered by any institutions in India. The Union Public Service Commission has also not prescribed these two subjects for recruitment to Indian Forest Service. When these courses are not offered by any institution in India, there is no possibility for availability of Professors to frame syllabus and set question papers in these subjects. This apart, there will be no candidate at all to opt these subjects. Therefore, the Commission had decided not to announce the said qualifications in its Notification dated 22.2.2000 for the post of Assistant Conservator of Forests. Therefore, the Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission has requested that the subjects "Wildlife Management" and "Wildlife Ecology" may be deleted from the Scheme of examination for recruitment relating to the post of Assistant Conservator of Forests included in Group I A Services. The Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission has therefore requested that necessary orders may be issued in the matter so as to enable the Personnel and Administrative Reforms (M) Department, to issue necessary amendments to G.O.Ms.No.603, Personnel and Administrative Reforms (Pe Department, dated 12.6.1985, wherein schemes of examination for recruitme various posts for which selection is conducted by the Commission are included.

3. The Government examined the request of the Tamil Nadu Public Se Commission in consultation with the Principal Chief Conservator of Forests consider that there is no necessity for inclusion of the subjects "Wildlife Managem and "Wildlife Ecology" in the scheme of examination conducted by the Tamil N Public Service Commission in Group I services. The Government accordingly d that the subjects "Wildlife Management" and "Wildlife Ecology" be deleted in scheme of examination for direct recruitment to the post of Assistant Conservat Forests included in Group I A Services conducted by the Tamil Nadu Public Ser Commission.
